SAU Tech provides access to the Internet as a privilege and a tool for employees and students who agree to use the resource in a considerate and responsible manner. It is unacceptable for a user to use, submit, publish, display or transmit any information which:

- A. Violates or infringes on the rights of any other person, including the right to privacy;
- B. Contains defamatory, false, inaccurate, abusive, obscene, pornographic, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, racially offensive, or otherwise biased, discriminatory, or illegal material;
- C. Violates SAU Tech policy prohibiting sexual harassment;
- D. Restricts or inhibits other users from using the system or the efficiency of the computer systems;
- E. Encourages the use of controlled substances or uses the system for the purposes of criminal intent or any illegal purpose.

It is also unacceptable for a user to use the capabilities of the system to:

- A. Conduct any non-approved business;
- B. Solicit the performance of any activity that is prohibited by law;
- C. Transmit material, information, or software in violation of any local, state or federal law;
- D. Conduct any political activity;
- E. Conduct any non-governmental-related fundraising or public relations activities;
- F. Engage in any activity for personal gain or personal business transactions; or
- G. Make any unauthorized purchases.

Penalties for non-compliance with this policy include, but are not limited to:

- A. Suspension of Internet service to employee(s)/student(s) with or without notice.
- B. Internal disciplinary measures, including discharge for instances of non-compliance that result in damage or otherwise compromise SAU Tech or its employees, agents, or customers.
- C. Initiation of criminal or civil action, if appropriate.

By signing and returning this form, you are agreeing to abide by SAU Tech's Internet Use policy.
